

C.R. Gardner Author Bio

For Carla, writing is up there with breathing – it's not that she wants to write, she NEEDS to write. She is predominantly a writer of fantasy with a touch of romance, a twist of sci fi and a dash of horror.

Her favourite colour is purple. Her favourite animals are dragons! Pizza and chocolate her favourite foods. She has too many favourite authors to list and dabbles in drawing with the hope of adding costume making to her skillset.

She has been married to Tim for more than 25 years, is the mother of three wonderful teens and moved into the Benalla region in March 2013. When not writing Carla raises heritage and rare breed poultry, sells rainbow eggs and uses an eclectic mix of permaculture, holistic farming and Natural Sequence Farming on their two acres and runs. She also facilitates the Benalla Wizards (boardgaming, roleplaying and costuming) and the Broken River Writers.

You can find Carla here <https://www.facebook.com/CRGardnerAuthor/>