Which of the following statements best applies to you/the person you are referring?

- Do you have an inner artist just waiting to be released?
- Have you always dreamt of being an exhibiting artisan?
- Have you always wanted to do an art course, or take up art courses again, but haven't had the opportunity to do so?
- Have your family and friends told you your art or craft work is very good and that you should sell it?
- Would you like to be able to exhibit your work or offer it for sale in gift shops and at markets?
- Have you been hampered by a belief that your work isn't good enough?
- Would you like to be introduced to the NEA community of artisans?
- Would you like to develop confidence to belong to a community of artists and artisans such as NEA
- Other?

Describe something creative you have produced in the past or are currently creating which you could bring along or show us images of as a way of letting us know a little more about your 'inner artisan'? Don't worry that it might not be 'good enough', just choose something or things you enjoyed creating and enjoy looking at.

Which 'Door of Hope' course would you / the person you are referring prefer?

<input type="checkbox"/>	Subject / Object / I – Self Mapping Through Art Explore key questions about how you perceive yourself in relation to the world while being supported to create a unique piece of art for exhibition and possible sale. No genre of art is out of bounds. Possibilities include painting, stenciling, animation, film, projection, sound, jewelry, sculpture, textile work.	Teacher: Edie Black Tues & Thurs 5.30 – 7.30 pm from 21 st Feb
<input type="checkbox"/>	From Fibre to Felt Learn the basic techniques of wet felting: changing fibre to felt. Express your creativity and make an individual piece of "felt art". Felt can be made to create jewelry, bags, framed art, wall hangings, 3D objects such as decorative bowls or wearable art such as scarves to exhibit and sell at NEA. "	Teacher: Annie Longmuir Wed 10.30–12.30 from 15 th Feb
